Help keep up the campaign against the BNP

Unite Against Fascism has been leading the struggle against the fascist British National Party and other racist groups, such as the English Defence League, which has been targeting the Muslim community in towns and cities all over Britain. We have organised demonstrations, rallies, conferences and pickets against the fascists – and we have organised mass canvassing and leafleting in the recent general and local election campaign against the BNP, which saw the party heavily defeated in its target areas, losing nearly half its councillors. All these activities cost money, which is why we are appealing to everyone to dig deep and donate to Unite Against Fascism.
