LOVE LEICESTER HATE RACISM

The Islamophobic and racist English Defence League (EDL) has stated its intention to demonstrate in Leicester on 4th February. It will be the first national EDL demonstration of 2012. Despite the Stephen Lawrence verdict and the racist murder of Anuj Bidve in Manchester on Boxing day Nazis will once again be allowed to parade through our streets.

Leicester has a proud history of challenging prejudice and promoting equality. We oppose discrimination of all kinds. We've worked and campaigned together for many years to build a successful, multicultural city where different communities live peacefully side-by-side.

We will not accept attempts to create fear and intimidation in our community. The EDL is a violent, racist organisation. They should be opposed wherever they attempt to organise.

We call upon all people, political parties, trade unions, cultural, youth, faith and community organisations to work together to unite our city and defy the EDL's attempts to divide us and stir up hatred.

The Nazi National Front were defeated in Leicester in 1979 by mass unity on the streets

We will stand united against the EDL on 4 Feb
